

Where is my Mummy?

Ancient Egypt, civilized since 6000 BC
Settlers along the Nile, the world's first organized society

The headman ruled the area, as he was said to keep the flooding down
Until Black and Red lands united, and the Pharaoh took the crown

God of the Delta was Horus, and Upper Egypt was known as Seth
Centuries of dynasties, revolved around life after death

The Great Pyramid and lighthouse Pharos, are among the wonders of the world
The Sphinx, mummification, and Tutankhamun's tomb where curses unfurled

Hieroglyphics is 2000 characters, of objects, ideas or sound
The Rosetta stone helps to decipher, and Napoleon was the one who it found

Suez Canal links two oceans to two seas, since 1869
In 1882 Britain seized control, to prevent world trade decline

Their official language is Arabic, and religious faith is Islam Muslim
Divided into four cultural groups, you are a Copt, Bedouin, Nubian or Fallahin

Egypt become independent from the British, Feb. 1922
Treasures and riches, Valley of the Kings, were discoveries they would accrue

Cairo is the capital, Luxor, Aswan and Alexandria are key
The Nile is the link for transport, sustenance, homes and history

Geometry planned their buildings, astronomy aligned from the sky
Surrounded by the Sahara, they built Aswan High Dam to protect supply

Nassar was the first Egyptian leader, Anwar al-Sadat the first president
The Arab Republic of Egypt, it's a place you'll be glad that you went.

